Show Cause Hearing: Continued from January 9, 2006; Class D, Food Dispenser and Holiday License; Eagle Social Club, 383 Admiral Street; Violation of: On November 19, 2005, at approximately 1:42 hours, police observed six males inside the bar drinking after the required closing time of 1:00 a.m.
Show Cause Hearing: Continued from January 23, 2006; Class D, Food Dispenser and Holiday License; Polish American Citizens Club of Providence, Inc., d/b/a Prime Time Café, 161 Douglas Avenue; for violation of: December 8, 2005, when Lt. Michael Correia was at the Prime Time Café and spoke with the club manager, Greg Davis. Davis advised him that the capacity counter at the front door listed 125 patrons inside. The club appeared to be well over that capacity. Davis advised the Lt. that there was a private function in progress and that 250 tickets were sold. The club has a listed capacity of 215. At approximately 12:40 am, police returned to the club and counted over 360 patrons as they left the establishment.
Show Cause Hearing: Class D, Food Dispenser and Holiday License; Polish American Citizens Club of Providence, Inc., d/b/a Prime Time Café, 161 Douglas Avenue; for violating a License Board closure for January 20, 2006. The Board mandated a closure for January 19, 20 and 21, 2006. The closure was a result of a Show Cause Hearing on December 28, 2005. The Hearing resulted in the Board ordering a ten (10) day suspension of the Polish American Citizens Club of Providence, Inc./Prime Time Café Class D Liquor License with seven (7) of the ten (10) days suspension to be suspended, with a six (6) month probationary period for the suspended time frame. On Friday, January 20, 2006, at approximately 21:00 hours, Detective St. Lawrence entered the Prime Time Café. Upon entering the establishment, he observed the interior lights on and televisions on, as well as several employees preparing the bar area with beer and ice.

Show Cause Hearing – Continued from February 1, 2006; Class B/BX, Food Dispenser, Holiday License and Entertainment; A.A.T. Restaurant Corp., Inc., d/b/a Pulse; 86 Crary Street, Unit W-1; for violation of an incident which occurred on November 24, 2005, at approximately 1:30 hours. At that time, a fight erupted inside the establishment on the dance floor area between females. Shortly afterward, a second disturbance took place involving a large group of males. They were removed by the club security staff. The group again began to fight while in the parking lot and were dispersed by police. Minutes later, the group, who had left the parking area, were observed returning towards the club and advanced towards police. Additional officers from around the city were called to respond to assist the detail officer. While officers were responding to the disturbance, they observed two males standing on the corner of Frank and Beacon Streets. One of the males was stuffing a chrome revolver in the front of his pants wristband. The subjects were apprehended after a foot chase and charged with Possession of a Firearm Without a License and Receiving Stolen Goods (stolen firearm).
