INTRODUCTION

These Rules and Regulations Pertaining to the Licensing of Dietitians/Nutritionists (R5-64-DN) are promulgated pursuant to the authority conferred under Chapter 5-64 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as amended, for the purpose of protecting the health, safety and welfare of the public by providing for the licensing and regulation of dietitians/nutritionists.

Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 42-35-3 of the General Laws, consideration was given to: (1) alternative approach to the amended regulations; (2) duplication or overlap with other state regulations; and (3) significant economic impact on small business as defined in Chapter 42-35 of the General Laws which may result from the regulations. No alternative approach, duplication or overlap was identified, nor any significant economic impact based on information available.

These Rules and Regulations Pertaining to the Licensing of Dietitians/Nutritionists shall supersede all previous rules and regulations pertaining to the licensing of dietitians/nutritionists promulgated by the Department of Health and filed with the Secretary of State.

- 1.10 "Examination" means the registration examination for dietitians or other examination as determined by and approved by the Board.

Section 2.0 Licensing Requirement

- 2.1 Only a person licensed or otherwise authorized to practice under the Act and the rules and regulations herein shall practice dietetics or use the title "dietitian/nutritionist" or use the letters L.D.N. or any facsimile thereof.

Section 3.0 Qualifications For Licensure

3.1 Licensure by examination

The applicant must present:

- a) evidence of completion of a baccalaureate or post baccalaureate degree with a program in nutrition or dietetics; and

- b) evidence of completion of a Board approved, planned, continuous experience in dietetics practice which meets the American Dietetic Association accreditation/approval program definition of professional level supervised practice, or its equivalent, of not less than 900 hours under the supervision of a registered dietitian or dietitian/nutritionist licensed in the state of Rhode Island; and
- c) evidence of having successfully passed the Registration Examination for Dietitians administered by the Commission on Dietetic Registration.

3.2 Graduate Practice

- 3.2.1 Any graduate of a program in nutrition/dietetics, which is approved by the American Dietetic Association Commission on Education, who has filed a completed application (which includes all documents except for examination scores) for licensing, may, upon receiving a receipt from the Division of Professional Regulation, perform as a dietitian/nutritionist under the supervision of a dietitian/ nutritionist licensed in this state.
- 3.2.2 During this period, such an applicant shall identify him or herself only as a "graduate dietitian/nutritionist."
- 3.2.3 If such an applicant shall fail to pass the examination and receive a license within six (6) months of receiving a receipt from the Division of Professional Regulation, all aforementioned privileges shall automatically cease.

3.3 Licensing Without Examination

- 3.3.1 The Board shall recommend for licensure any person who provides evidence of current registration as a registered dietitian by the Commission on Dietetic Registration.

Section 4.0 Application for Licensure and Fee

- 4.1 Application for licensure shall be made on forms provided by the Division of Professional Regulation which shall be completed, notarized and submitted to the Board thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled meeting of the Board. Such application shall be accompanied by the following documents: (Photocopies are not acceptable unless they are notarized.)

- a) For those born in the U.S.: A certified copy of birth certificate.

For those born outside the U.S.: Proof of lawful entry into the country.

- c) Three (3) affidavits from responsible unrelated persons attesting to the applicant's good moral character.
- d) The non-refundable application fee of sixty-two dollars and fifty cents ($62.50), check or money order made payable to the General Treasurer, State of Rhode Island.
- e) Persons who apply for licensure with examination:

evidence of having successfully completed the examination administered by the Commission on Dietetic Registration, mailed directly from the Commission to the Department.
- f) Persons who apply for licensure without examination must provide proof of valid registration mailed directly from the Commission on Dietetic Registration.

Section 5.0 License Expiration and Renewal

- 5.1 Licenses shall be valid for up to two (2) years and must be renewed biennially, the renewal fee being one hundred twenty-five ($125) dollars.
- 5.2 On or before October 1, the Administrator of Professional Regulation shall mail an application for renewal of license to every dietitian/nutritionist to whom a license has been issued or renewed for the period ending November 1 of the same year. Every person so licensed who intends to practice as a licensed dietitian/nutritionist during each ensuing year shall apply for a license by application to the Administrator of Professional Regulation.
 - 5.2.1 Starting in 1995, and every second year thereafter, said application shall be accompanied by or supported by evidence of the completion of a minimum of twenty (20) continuing education credits using criteria accepted by the Commission on Dietetic Registration and as approved by the Board.
 - 5.2.1.1 Said continuing education requirement shall be pro-rated, as necessary, by the Division to reflect licensure periods of less than two (2) years prior to renewal.
- 5.3 Any licensee who allows his or her license to lapse by failing to renew the license by the appropriate date may be reinstated upon submission of a renewal fee of one hundred twenty-five ($125) dollars and a re-registration fee of one hundred twenty-five ($125) dollars for a total of two hundred fifty ($250) dollars.

Section 6.0 Denial, Suspension or Revocation of License - Violations

- 6.1 Any violation pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5-64 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as amended, and the rules and regulations herein, may be cause for denial, revocation or suspension of license or for imposing such other penalties in accordance with Chapter 42-35 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as amended. Pursuant to section 5-64-9 of the Rhode Island General Laws, as amended, such violations, include but are not limited to: (1) guilty of fraud or deceit in procuring or attempting to procure a license; (2) guilty of a felony; (3) willfully or repeatedly violated any of the provisions of the Act or the rules and regulations herein; (4) habitually negligent in the performance of his/her duties.

Section 7.0 Exemptions

7.1 These rules and regulations shall not be construed as preventing or restricting the practice, services or activities of:

- a) Any person who does not call him/herself a dietitian/nutritionist from providing nutritional information to customers or any consumer as to the use of food, food products or dietary supplements in connection with the marketing and distribution of those products;
- b) Any person who provides a weight loss program and/or health maintenance counseling as long as such persons do not engage in nutrition counseling for the management of disease, and do not hold themselves out to be dietitians/nutritionists.
- c) A person licensed or certified in this state under any other law from engaging in the profession or occupation for which the person is licensed or certified; and any person holding a doctoral degree from an accredited institution in nutrition or a related field as determined by the Board; and any person with a bachelor's degree in home economics who furnishes nutrition information incidental to the practice of his/her profession.
- d) A person employed as a nutritionist/dietitian by the government of the United States, or the state of Rhode Island, or by a participating local agency of the special supplemental food program for women, infants and children, if the person practices solely under the direction or control of the organization by which the person is employed.
- e) A student enrolled in an accredited academic program in dietetics/nutrition.
- f) Family members, friends or acquaintances who provide gratuitous nutrition advice, as long as the advisor does not hold him/herself out to be a dietitian/nutritionist.
- g) Not-for-profit (26 U.S.C. §501 [c] [3]) health related agencies which provide nutrition information in the normal course of doing business.

Section 8.0 Rules Governing Practices and Procedures

8.1 All hearings and reviews required under the provisions of Chapter 5-64 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as amended, shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the Rules and Regulations of the Rhode Island Department of Health Regarding Practices and Procedures Before the Rhode Island Department of Health and Access to Public Records of the Department of Health (R42-35-PP).

Section 9.0 Severability

- 9.1 If any provision of these rules and regulations or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions or application of the rules and regulations which can be given effect, and to this end the provisions of the rules and regulations are declared to be severable.
