Commercial Licensing Regulation 10 – Real Estate Appraisers

SECTION 1 INTRODUCTION

- (A) The purpose of this regulation is to promote the general welfare of the citizens of Rhode Island by the implementation of R.I. Gen. Laws § 5-20.7-1, et seq., and R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-35-3 so that the provisions thereunder may be best effectuated and the public interest be most effectively served.

This licensing requirement applies to all opinions or analyses of real estate value or use, whether in the form of a written appraisal, consultant's report, or expert testimony before a court or an administrative body (such as a local zoning board).
- (C) Notwithstanding the mandatory licensure requirement, any person who holds a real estate broker or salesperson's license may provide, in the ordinary course of business, a written or oral opinion of value of real estate solely for the purposes of a prospective listing, purchase, sale, or business valuation but may not refer to such an opinion of value as an appraisal.
