GENERAL INFORMATION

VERY IMPORTANT

Rhode Island is part of the Nurse Licensure Compact. If your legal residence is in a state that is part of the Nurse Licensure Compact, you must apply for that state's license, which will provide you privileges to work in RI. You do not need a RI nursing license. Please visit <https://www.ncsbn.org/158.htm> in order to determine if your state is part of the Compact. Your employer just needs to verify your nursing license by visiting <https://www.nursys.com>.

If your legal residence is in a state that is not part of the Nurse Licensure Compact and you wish to practice nursing in RI, then you must obtain a RI nursing license by completing this application.

For more information regarding the Nurse Licensure Compact, please visit our website at:

APPLICATION PROCESS OVERVIEW

The licensure process in the State of Rhode Island is conducted by the Rhode Island Department of Health (HEALTH), Office of Health Professionals Regulation, and the Rhode Island Board of Nurse Registration and Nursing Education (Board).

Application Process

In addition to the application, you must submit additional information directly to the Board. All items listed on the "checklist" (page 9) must be submitted for an application to be considered complete. All applications are considered valid for 1 year from the day they are received at HEALTH. If you do not complete the application process and obtain a license within 1 year a new application must be submitted.

If you have a criminal history, in Rhode Island or another state, it can take an additional 2 or 3 months for all pertinent documentation to be received, and a decision to be made regarding issuance of your license.

<http://www.health.ri.gov/hsr/professions/nurses.php>

HEALTH will not, for any reason, accelerate the processing of one applicant at the expense of others. Once completed, the application will be reviewed, and you will be contacted in writing. Be advised, you may be required to appear for an interview. NOTE: You may not practice in Rhode Island until you have received a license number.

Please continue to review the remaining portions of this application packet for instructions and other materials necessary to complete the application. If you have any questions about this application process, or would like to check on the status of your application, please contact the board staff at (401) 222-5700.

Rhode Island residents are required to obtain this information via the RI Attorney General's Office, 150 South Main Street, Providence, RI 02903 Tel. (401) 421-5268.
