2. AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE

Restoration of ethics commission jurisdiction over General Assembly members

Section 8 of Article III and Section 5 of Article VI of the Constitution

Section 8 of Article III of the Constitution shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 8. Ethics commission - Code of ethics. - The general assembly shall establish an independent non-partisan ethics commission which shall adopt a code of ethics including, but not limited to, provisions on conflicts of interest, confidential information, use of position, contracts with government agencies and financial disclosure. The assent of two-thirds (2/3) of the members appointed shall be required for the adoption for every rule or regulation. All elected and appointed officials and employees of state and local government, of boards, commissions and agencies shall be subject to the code of ethics. The ethics commission shall have the authority to investigate alleged violations of the code of ethics, including acts otherwise protected by Article VI, Section 5, and to impose penalties, as provided by law; and the Any sanction issued against any party by the ethics commission shall be appealable to the judicial branch as provided by law. The commission shall have the power to remove from office officials who are not otherwise subject to impeachment, or expulsion as provided by Article VI, Section 7.

Section 5 of Article VI of the Constitution shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 5. Immunities of general assembly members. - The persons of all members of the general assembly shall be exempt from arrest and their estates from attachment in any civil action, during the session of the general assembly, and two days before the commencement and two days after the termination thereof, and all process served contrary hereto shall be void. For any speech in debate in either house, no member shall be questioned in any other place, except by the ethics commission as set forth in Article III, Section 8.

Approval of the amendments to Section 8 of Article III and Section 5 of Article VI of the Rhode Island Constitution set forth above will restore the jurisdiction of the ethics commission over members of the General Assembly.

Local Questions

8. AMENDMENT TO THE CHARLESTOWN TOWN CHARTER

Duly adopted by the Charlestown Town Council on the 9th day of August, 2016

(Amends Article XXVI Financial Referendum § C-86, Sec. B. - Date, Time and Purpose)

Shall the Town Charter be amended at Article XXVI, Financial Referendum § C-86 to provide that any voter - initiated referendum to authorize bonded indebtedness on the Town may only be presented to the voters at a regularly scheduled general election?

Explanation: This amendment is intended to increase voter participation by requiring that any voter - initiated referendum question or bonding authorization be presented at a general election, rather than at the financial town meeting, when voter turnout is typically lower.

Existing Provisions: Bonding authorization referendum questions may be proposed at any financial town meeting.

9. CHARIHO REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT SCHOOLS AND SCHOOL FACILITY BONDS not to exceed $6,000,000

(Chapters 225/266 - Public Laws 2016)

Shall an act passed at the 2016 session of the General Assembly entitled, 'An act authorizing the Chariho Regional School District to finance the construction, furnishing and equipping of a new building for the R.Y.S.E. school, including removal of existing modular classrooms and to finance improvements to the Switch Road campus, including, but not limited to, landscaping, paving, parking and traffic redesign and all expenses incidental thereto by the issuance of not more than $6,000,000 bonds and/or notes therefor, subject to approval of state school housing aid at a reimbursement rate of not less than 56%' be approved?

The principal of, redemption premium and interest on bonds and notes issued for the projects will be borne by the member towns in the same proportions as the enrollment of students from each town bears to the total student enrollment of the district, in accordance with the Chariho Act. The Chariho Regional School District Committee shall annually make payments from its fund balance to the member towns in an amount equal to the difference between thirty-three and one-third percent (33⅓%) of debt service and any member town's actual annual contribution of principal and interest on bonds and notes for the Projects if that contribution exceeds thirty-three and one-third percent (33⅓%) of debt service.
