544529 COOK RICHARD DOB: 10/10/1987 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. The Board acknowledges Mr. Cook's candor in responding to its questions. Nonetheless, in light of the repetitive nature of his offenses for drug dealing and his criminal thinking, which has not changed in over nine years, the Board is hard pressed to grant parole and believes to parole him would promote disrespect for the law. The Board strongly encourages Mr. Cook

130557 SMITH STEVEN M DOB: 10/01/1987 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Mr. Smith presents with a very poor attitude, as well as no insight on this fifth incarceration. In light of these factors, as well as his criminal history, the Board votes to deny parole without reconsideration. He will flatten his sentence as to parole him would promote disrespect for the law.

deny parole at this time, but will reconsider Mr. Velez in February 2017. The reason for the denial is given Mr. Velez's long history and repetitive nature of his offenses. The Board notes that he was charged as a habitual offender under this sentence. The Board also notes that it does not have information regarding his parole plan. He indicates that his family members have sent in both a home and work plan, but the Board is not in receipt of same. At his

XX. Without insight, or a parole plan, the Board finds that he is at a high risk to reoffend and cannot state that he can remain at liberty without violating the law. (GTD: 11/2/18) MEDIUM VOTE: YES: Pisaturo, Almeida, Archibald ABSENT: Armesto
