offenses committed over a period of time against a child under the age of fourteen. The Board notes that police reports reflected that he admitted these offenses to police in three separate statements to police, but then later denied his culpability at his trial. Apparently a jury rejected his account and he was convicted of these offenses. He denies responsibility before the Board today.

He is xxx, but by his

548223 CAAMANO JOSE A DOB: 12/20/1988 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Mr. Caamano is here on his fourth incarceration and xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx the beginning of this sentence. In light of the repetitive nature of this offense, as well as its seriousness including the extent of his drug dealing and his possession of firearms we vote to deny parole without reconsideration.

We believe that to parole him on this particular record and offense would not only promote disrespect for the law, but would undermine the seriousness of his offense. He
