The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. At hearing Mr. Resende begins with distancing himself from the DUI as well as his criminal history and minimized both his involvement as well as his responsibility. In light of his lack of candor to the Board, as well as the positive structure that he is being provided on Home Confinement, the Board votes to deny parole without reconsideration as we cannot state that he can remain at liberty without violating the law.

REV/REPAROLE

Mr. Barrett is before the Board as an alleged parole violator, his attorney is here as well. He proceeds to hearing. Mr. Barrett was charged by the Rhode Island State Police for Leaving the Scene of an Accident Property Damage Resulting. The Board finds that he violated the terms and conditions of parole by committing this new offense and revokes parole. Under the circumstances, however, and in light of his prior violation circumstances, three members of the Parole Board vote to reparole Mr. Barrett under the same conditions set by the Board in June 2017. The Chairperson agrees with the findings, but also finds that he misrepresented the facts and circumstances to the Parole Board since his June 2017 hearing and she would revoke parole and then reconsider him at a future date. Parole is
