

The Board has considered carefully the application of the parole release criteria to this case, including the seriousness of the offense which remains a constant. In balance, and considering all of the statutory release criteria, the Board votes to parole Ms. Catterall in May

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Given the nature of Mr. Bonilla's probation violation, a new domestic violence offense xx

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. The Board acknowledges Mr. Landry's efforts to better himself and try to understand the "whys" of this particular offense as well as its impact and we encourage him to continue xxxxxxxxxx xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx. However, given the seriousness of the offense, including the victimization of a person of significant vulnerabilities, some limited insight into his progression to this decision making and lack of concern as evidenced on the day of the crime, the Board is hard pressed to parole him from this short sentence as we believe that it would undermine the seriousness of the offense and promote disrespect for the law. For these reasons we will deny parole without reconsideration.

DOB: 04/15/1995 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Per CO Zannini, Mr. Vargas was in segregation and refused to appear before the Parole Board. Accordingly, the Board considered his case in absentia. We note, for the record, that he has several juvenile adjudications including Second Degree Robbery and Conspiracy in 2012, Possession of Marijuana Less Than 1oz in 2011 and Possession with Intent to Deliver in 2010 that are not reflected in his parole risk assessment. He pleaded to a Breaking & Entering offense, concurrent with the offense for which he is serving, and this should also be
