The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Two members of the Board vote to parole Mr. Cadet and two members vote to deny parole without reconsideration. Finding as an aggravating factor that he displayed very limited insight at hearing into the gravity of the offense and also appeared to minimize the offense as well as his responsibility. Without a majority vote parole is denied without reconsideration.

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. The Board commends Mr. Perkins on his upgrade to Minimum Security, xxxxxxxx xxx, but we have lingering concerns regarding his parole plan. In light of his criminal history, the Board would like to see a more concrete parole plan with respect to his employment, specifically, and we will deny parole at this time and reconsider him in six months (1/2019). We encourage him to present a parole plan that includes full-time employment so that he can be afforded with greater structure while on parole. (GTD: 7/11/22) MINIMUM VOTE: UNANIMOUS-Present;

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. In light of Mr. Piasecki's significant criminal history, as well as his new charge for Breaking and Entering, the Board votes to deny parole at this time as we believe to parole him now would promote disrespect for the law and undermine the seriousness of his offense. That said, we will reconsider him in January 2019

545823 MENARD JUSTIN R

DOB: 08/09/1985 - RESC PAROLE

Mr. Menard is before the Board for a review. He was previously granted parole for November 2018, but has since been charged and pleaded to a new criminal offense in Superior Court. In light of the nature of his new charge the Board members vote to rescind parole. He will flatten his sentence as we believe that to parole him on this record would undermine the seriousness of his offense and promote disrespect for the law.
