093934 TAPIA JOSE J DOB: 03/13/1976 - PAROLED

The Board votes to parole Mr. Tapia in August 2020 to his approved home and job plan. The Board has considered carefully this parole application, mindful of the tremendous loss of innocent life, the seriousness and severity of which will never be diminished. In balancing our statutory obligation and considerations, the Board finds that Mr. Tapia has earned the privilege of early release through parole, that he is a low risk for recidivism and can live outside of prison xxxxxxxxxxxx, law-abiding, productive person who can make positive contributions to his family and community. In this case, the Board will set a staggered release date to afford a successful transition, which may include a movement through securities (at the Department's discretion) xxxxxxxxxxxx

xx. We encourage him

to speak to at risk youth about choices. Parole is contingent and if a suitable discharge plan can be recommended on his behalf that offers a safe transition to the community he can apply for reconsideration. Otherwise he will flatten his sentence. (GTD:6/19/19) MAXIMUM VOTE: UNANIMOUS-Present; Pisaturo, Perez,

136000 DOLIVRAMENTO BRANDON D DOB: 11/07/1990 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. The Board commends Mr. Dolivramento xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx. However, due to the limited insight he displayed at hearing, his criminal history,

the Board votes to deny parole without reconsideration. The Board finds that his is at high risk to reoffend and cannot state that he could remain at liberty without reoffending.

DENIED

105240 GEMMA MATTHEW B DOB: 02/01/1972 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. The Board believes that it is too early in this sentence, given the nature and seriousness of his crime (including the use of a weapon and victimization), to parole Mr. Gemma. We have considered his criminal history, as well as his moderate risk to reoffend, and also note that he has a prior conviction for robbery in but otherwise believe that he should serve more time. We will reconsider him in two years. (8/2020) (GTD: 5/4/22) assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Mr. Stone appeared before the Board xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx for the murder and significantly downplayed his involvement in several assaults against other victims in the case. Although he admitted that he was involved in a criminal lifestyle (procuring drugs), he reflected limited insight into how this connected to his conviction for murder and several assaults. This is concerning to Board members xxxxxxxxxxxx xx. Due to the severity of the offense, loss of innocent life, and multiple felony offenses,

xx

xx, the Board votes to deny parole and we will reconsider him in August 2024. The Board does not believe Mr. Stone meets any of the parole release criteria at this stage of his sentence. We encourage him to spend some time reflecting on his contribution to the offenses in question

135253 WASHINGTON GENERAL T DOB: 11/17/1990 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Mr. Washington advises that he has a criminal charge pending for domestic assault and the Board is hard pressed to seriously consider him for parole release in light of this pending criminal offense as we believe it would depreciate the seriousness of his actions and promote disrespect for the law. We will deny parole and if this charge is ultimately dismissed he can write to the Board for reconsideration. We do commend Mr. Washington on the insight displayed at hearing with respect to the steps he needs to take to change his pattern of criminal thinking and behavior.
