XX. The reason for the staggered date is the Board finds that Mr. Martinez did express insight at hearing with the impact of his crime and accepted responsibility, however, in light of the nature of his offense and the amount of drugs the Board feels he should serve more time. Parole is contingent upon this offender remaining booking free and in any program or educational course in which he is currently enrolled.

During any period he becomes unemployed, he must document an active employment search and also work with his parole officer to perform up to twenty hours weekly of community service (GTD:8/10/22) MEDIUM VOTE: UNANIMOUS-Present; Pisaturo, Nolan, Cepeda, Armesto

REVOKED

105417 LOPEZ ALEX A DOB: 02/18/1974 - REVOKED

Mr. Lopez is before the Board as an alleged parole violator and was previously given his rights for a Parole Revocation Hearing. He chooses to go forward with hearing without witnesses and admits that he violated the terms and conditions of parole and all of his street time. He pleaded to a new criminal charge, which the Board takes notice of. The Board votes to revoke Mr. Lopez's parole. He will flatten his sentence. The Board will not make his sentences run consecutively, but cautions Mr. Lopez on his conduct. It is time for him to end his pattern of criminal thinking and behavior. (GTD:1/7/20) MEDIUM

109062 HAZARD DAVID W DOB: 05/11/1981 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. The Board commends Mr. Hazard on his presentation before the Board. Given Mr. Hazard's criminal history, as well as the nature of his

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. The Board votes to deny parole in light of the severity of the offense as well as consideration for Mr. Martinez's criminal history which includes convictions for Assault With a Dangerous Weapon as well as Assault with Intent to Rob. We believe, as reflected on our risk assessment instrument, this makes him a higher risk for recidivism and also believes that to parole him would depreciate the seriousness of the offense as reflected in the loss of life, use of a firearm, and

157582 PIZARRO ALEX DOB: 09/25/1991 - DENIED

The Board considered information reflecting both static and dynamic indicators including, but not limited to, criminal history, police reports(s), institutional record, risk assessment(s) and parole plan/request. Board members found that Mr. Pizarro minimized the seriousness of his offense and distanced himself from his prior criminal history for gun possession and drug distribution. The Board votes to deny parole without reconsideration as we believe that to parole him would undermine the seriousness of his offense and promote disrespect for the law in light of his criminal history and limited insight at hearing.
