TOWN ADMINISTRATOR’S REPORT

1. Report on Critical Incident Training for Town Hall Staff – On Jan. 23, Portsmouth Police Lt. Mark Mooney conducted a training presentation for Town Hall employees on how to respond to an active workplace threat situation. We covered the FEMA recommended training program of Run, Hide, Fight and how to respond to a workplace violence situation. I extend my appreciation to Lt. Mooney who has given presentations to many local businesses, churches and schools on preparing for active threat situations.

2. Report on RI League of Cities and Towns – The RI League of Cities and Towns held their annual convention on Jan 24. Most Department Heads attended. Designed as a showcase event for local government officials, this year’s event featured 18 workshops and seminars and included participation of over 100 companies, government agencies and non-profits. A link to the seminar presentations and handouts used is available on the League’s web-site.

3. Facility Condition Assessment Initiative – The way Portsmouth plans for repair and upgrade of Town buildings is like most other communities. Information is gathered in the town’s Capital Improvement Program budget, Department budgets and a few other spots, but there’s limited hard data to back up our true needs. As you are aware, the State recently had consultants Jacobs Engineering and Architecture perform an independent review of every school building in Rhode Island. I’ve since teamed up with the Town Administrator in Middletown to explore a way to professionally assess all our towns’ buildings, not just the schools. This is a first for RI and we hope teaming together can help reduce the overall cost of such an assessment – an assessment that will provide us with a road map to guide us in making the best decisions about where to spend and what to spend on. At this stage we are preparing a database of Town buildings and facilities that will be used to form the basis of a cost estimate for this initiative. No decisions have been made and it will be up to the council to determine if we should proceed after you’ve had a chance to evaluate the proposal once it is developed.

4. Report on Fire Department Awards Ceremony – The Fire Department held their first annual Awards Ceremony at the Glen Manor House on Jan. 31. The Fire Prevention Education Award went to Lieutenant Andrew N. Jones for his public education outreach in our schools, local businesses and apartment complexes. The Emergency Medical Service Education Award went to Firefighter Dylan J. Miniati for his efforts in making medication guides for the department to use in training and operational environments. In addition, Years of Service Pins were handed out to firefighters who have achieved 5, 10, and 20 years of service. The Fire Chief and I would like to extend our appreciation to Katie and Don Wilkinson for their help in setting up this ceremony.

5. StormReady Rhode Island Ceremony – Over the last year and a half, the Rhode Island Emergency Management Agency, in collaboration with the National Weather Service, led an effort across Rhode Island to become a StormReady State. To be recognized as StormReady by the NWS, all cities and towns across the state completed a six-point plan to manage severe weather. Those six points include: Establish a 24-hour warning point and emergency operations center; Have more than one way to receive severe weather warnings and forecasts and to alert the public; Create a system that monitors weather conditions locally; Promote the importance of public readiness through community seminars; and, Develop a formal hazardous weather plan, which includes training severe weather spotters and holding emergency exercises. Portsmouth participated in this initiative and, thanks to the efforts of our Fire, Police, Public Works and our Emergency Management Agency, joined representatives from across the state at a ceremony in the State House Rotunda on Feb. 2 to celebrate the announcement that Rhode Island is the first state in the country to have all municipalities recognized as StormReady by the National Weather Service (NWS).

6. Next showing of Portsmouth Compact – The next showing of the Portsmouth Compact will be held here in the Council chamber on March 7 between 11:00 am and 1:00 pm. I’d like to recognize and thank the Town Clerk and Portsmouth Historical Society for coordinating this event. For those who may be unaware, the Compact is a document signed on March 7, 1638. It was the first document in American history that severed both political and religious ties with England and established the settlement of Portsmouth.

7. Announcement of School Vacation Camp – Ms. Wendy Bulk, our new Recreation Director, is coordinating a school vacation camp during the April 16-20 recess. The camp is open to children aged 5-13 and will be held at the Brown House and Seveney Sports Complex. Space is limited and she will coordinate the announcement to parents through our School Department.

8. Update on status of Weaver Cove Boat Ramp – Last week we met with representatives from RI DEM to discuss the Weaver Cove Boat Ramp. DEM initiated the meeting to inform us there is Federal money available for repairs, upgrades or even replacement of the ramp. They are looking for Portsmouth’s input and will work with our Harbor Management Commission and Planning Officer over the next 2-3 years to determine the best course of action to upgrade the facility. I’ll keep the Council informed as this initiative moves forward.

9. Police Building Construction Update – MILESTONES THIS PERIOD: Foundation walls are nearly complete; Easement and Agreements with National Grid for Electric and Gas Service is complete. A Critical Path Schedule update submitted by the contractor confirms Substantial Completion of the new building in September 2018 with Demolition of the existing building to follow. The Contractor acknowledges they have lost 3-4 weeks due to winter conditions and an average frost depth of more than two feet. In response they have re-sequenced some planned activities and plan on increased manpower to recover lost time. We are still on budget with actual cash flow slightly lower than projections for this stage of the project. Total Construction Billings to date are $1,005,245. The Town is withholding 5% retainage ($50,262.25) per the Contract Documents and Certified Payroll Affidavits are current. Structural Steel is scheduled for Delivery the week of February 26, 2018 with erection slated immediately upon receipt. Over the next two weeks work will focus on completion of the foundation walls in preparation for the arrival of structural steel.
