

this meeting was posted out of a desire to assure the public was aware of the process and not because a quorum of the Town Council was in attendance. as a result there was public participation in a session that may not have too much participation. No minutes were taken.