MEETING OF APRIL 12, 2016
The regular meeting of the Westerly Housing Authority was called to executive session at the request of Brian Lumnah. On motion made by Gary Murano, seconded by Mike Gulluscio and by unanimous vote, went to executive session.

At the executive session they discussed the contract with the Executive Director, William Valentine and the terms of the contract under the following provisions:

1. They agreed to a three year term with 3% increase each year;

2. In lieu of health insurance, the Executive Director is to receive $3,000;

3. The Westerly Housing Authority will continue to pay for seminars, education and travel expenses, all subject to Board approval;

4. That the pension contribution by the WHA was increased from 3% contribution by the Housing Authority to the Executive Director’s 401k, to 4%;

5. That the Commissioners agreed unanimously that the Executive Director can only be removed by majority vote, not an extraordinary majority; and

6. Lastly, with regards to union negotiation, the Executive Director must cooperate and assist the designated agent or attorney and the Board of Directors during the Housing Authority union negotiations.

Upon motion made by Mike Gulluscio, seconded by Barbara Rofrano with no discussion, it was unanimously passed and the minutes were not sealed and reported at open meeting.
