B. Approval of Revised Job Description - High School Principal - Ms. MacBeth commented that the job description looks phenomenal. Ms. MacBeth made a motion to approve the job description as presented in the packet. Mr. Wagner provided a second. Mr. Wood asked if the middle school was considered secondary. The Superintendent explained the difference is in the certification. She noted that the middle school principal position has its own job description. On a roll call vote, it was UNANIMOUSLY VOTED TO APPROVE the description.

X. New Business

A. Recalls - The Superintendent reported recalls would begin between now and the beginning of the school year. She didn't have any recommendations tonight but will keep the item on the agenda. Mr. Rotella noted some are on the list because their certifications expire on August 31st. They won't be recalled until their course work is completed and submitted to the Department of Education. Some teachers do qualify for unemployment benefits for the summer.

B. Report of Middle School Study Group - Dr. Kenworthy and Mr.

Pires reported on their consensus items developed from their research. Dr. Kenworthy recognized members of the group, Dr. Carney, Mrs. Lewis, Ms. Thorburn, Ms. Hallenbeck, Ms. Riley-Chamot and Mr. Santos. Ms. Riley-Chamot explained they began with the best practice for the middle school level of education and how they organized their work. Ms. Lewis spoke about middle school students currently being grouped homogeneously in all subjects by their weakest subject. Ms. Thorburn reported teachers will need support and professional development, especially in differentiated instruction.

Mr. Pires noted they were looking to remain high performing. The Superintendent reported meeting with the group and concurs with their recommendation to start with the 6th grade in September with heterogeneous grouping in all content areas except mathematics. It was part of the strategic plan and the middle school reform. Mr. Wood asked about tutoring and Mr. Pires noted they would look at supporting students as the next component. Ms. Crowley clarified that it was pacing for students in math that made it is easier to teach homogeneously. Ms. MacBeth thanked the committee and expressed concern for the 7th and 8th grades. A parent read a statement in support of this. Dr. Carney recognized teachers, Ms. Coughlin, Ms. Oldmixon and Ms. Vachon and parents Mrs. Ballou, Mrs. Corliss, Mrs. Joyce and Mr. Asis. She noted her background is math believes it is all about expectations and hopes to get rid of titles.

XI. Superintendent's Report - The Superintendent thanked the Middle School Task Force and is proud of their work. She reminded school committee members of their invitation to the reception at the high school for distinguished scholars and explained the Valedictorian and Salutatorian will be announced then. Dr. Morelle reported attending the Safe Routes to School meeting and they will be putting together a grant team for K-8.

The work will be over three to five years and will include an infrastructure and some smaller programs. She also stated Ms. Moore's leaving is bittersweet and thanked her for what she has done in the district.

XII. Comments from the Public - Mr. McLaughlin thanked the committee for their help in obtaining funds for the Debate Team. There will be a pasta dinner May 22nd at the Knights of Columbus hall on Broad Street. He asked the Superintendent to reconsider the four buses, stating he drove Mendon Road and there are no crosswalks or handicap pitches at intersections. The Superintendent noted she is working with the police department and no decisions have been made. Mrs. Steinke asked about the Kindergarten enrollment. Ms. Fruchere had some questions regarding the middle school reform. The Assistant Superintendent invited Mrs. Fruchere to call or make an appointment to meet. Dr. Carney explained there would be an informational meeting for parents. Mrs. Connolly spoke about self-esteem and morale. The Superintendent explained this change is to meet the academic, social and emotional needs of students. The Chair recommended Mrs. Connolly put herself on the informational workshop list through the Assistant Superintendent's office. Mrs. Coutu commented this is a wonderful program but there is a need for professional development and there is a short window for that for teachers. Mr. Santoro asked if there was financial support for this and the Chair explained the budget hasn't been proposed to the Town Council yet.

XIII. School Committee Comments (School Liaison Reports) - Ms. MacBeth commended the committee for looking into the tracking issue and there are representatives from teachers and parents and she is hearing support for this. Ms. Beaulieu noted she had announced the Science Olympiad at the High School and she was informed that McCourt Middle School also participated and have for almost for 17 years. She reported the Debate Team won 18 awards at the state championship. Mrs. LaPlante is retiring from coaching after 28 years. Ms. Beaulieu reported high school students participated in the national History Day and there is a spring celebration of youth art at Town Hall. Mr. Wood reported JJM Cumberland Hill will sponsor a Celebration of Learning on the 17th. Field trips are starting. He reported a garden club was started at JJM Cumberland Hill and teacher appreciation was held today. Mr. Wood suggested having the debate team or the robotics team make a presentation before the School Committee. Mr. Costa congratulated a Garvin fourth grader, Allison Smith, for being accepted to the National Young Scholars Program at Union College, New York. He suggested inviting some of the achievers to the first meeting in June. The Superintendent suggested having a recognition night.
