Agenda Item #5: Superintendent's Report
Supt. Mitchell announced that Jay Masterson was chosen as the 2016 Secondary Principal of the Year! Supt. Mitchell also noted that Nidia Karbonik was recently chosen as the Elementary Principal of the Year! A surprise was held at the middle school this morning for Principal Masterson and his family and friends and members of administration were also at the school for the surprise celebration! Congratulations Principal Masterson! Supt. Mitchell also stated that The RAD Training is moving along, several Cumberland Police Officers are involved and about 15 girls are currently participating - they have already had two sessions and more are being planned. Also, Senior Presentations were held yesterday and Supt. Mitchell said he was very impressed by some of the presentations that he was lucky enough to sit in on. He said it is very impressive to hear how well the students can articulate in detail the learning that has impacted their lives - he hopes that in the future parents will be able to see their children talking about their high school experience - it is something that is being considered because it is definitely something that the parents should be invited to. Also, ten seniors were chosen to give their speeches in front of hundreds of students in the Wellness Center - the speeches were about five minutes long and the stories/challenges were very touching and held the audience's attention! Great Job!

Agenda Item #6: Chairperson's Report
A. School/Town Collaboration - Mrs. Beaulieu stated that CHS hosted Governor Raimondo earlier this evening. She and the Commissioner of Education were invited by Supt. Mitchell and Mayor Murray. Mrs. Beaulieu noted that the evening was nicely done and she hopes the Governor will come back again!
