Old Business:

Time capsule – There was a discussion as to where it will be placed. It is to be buried at the Bicentennial tree in front of the Burrillville Historical Committee building in the spring. It will be opened in 50 years.

 Things we will include:

 Coin proof set of 2006 – Richard will get it for the time capsule

 Bicentennial hats – one of each

- * Bicentennial T-Shirt
- * Three small picture albums of Bicentennial activities – Pat M. has these
- * Banquet booklet and ticket
- * Red Bicentennial banner
- * Bicentennial Christmas ornaments
- * Bicentennial postcards, buttons, and magnets
- * Bicentennial proclamation from the State of RI
- * Newspaper articles on Burrillville’s Bicentennial
- * DVD’s – On Frozen Pond and Burrillville 2000
- * Burrillville Bugle pamphlet for 2006
- * Pat M’s history books
- * Old maps

We need to order the time capsule. Pat H. will do this. We also need to come up with a saying for the plaque.

Pat M. will get information on archival material to seal articles placed in capsule.

Rich said that Richard Dionne from the Conservation Commission has the stone for the Bicentennial tree. It is 8“x8”x24”. It is cut and the plaque will be epoxied to the front of it for a cost of $432.00.

Next meeting will be March 21 at 7:00 p. m. at the Town Hall.

Meeting adjourned at 8:45 p.m.
