3. DISCUSSION ITEMS

a) Update of the Council Personnel Policy Manual

Chair Green updated the Committee by summarizing the work she and Ms. Anne Marie Coleman accomplished during a meeting to determine the scope and description of the policies and procedures currently administered by the OPC. The Committee discussed its role in employing and providing policies to govern certain types of employs (approximately 400 people), and attempted to describe the types of individuals included. Chair Green circulated a draft list of policies and procedures she and Ms. Coleman compiled and the Committee reviewed and began editing it. Ms. Coleman will review further and add missing policies, including those from institutions other than URI.

The Committee discussed the scope of work it intends to perform to ensure the current policies and procedures have been reviewed, are up to date, and cohesive. This was last done in 2013.

Ms. Coleman has proposed changes to the Council on Postsecondary Education Personnel Policy Manual, and Chair Green will review and possibly circulate before the next Personnel Committee meeting.

b) Quarterly Reporting

The Committee reviewed the categories of information, compiled and circulated by Ms. Coleman and that it will ask for in the form of quarterly reports from the institutions' Presidents and the Commissioner of Postsecondary Education. The Committee agreed that the information requested is in conformance with the previously proposed addition of Section 1.08 of the Council on Postsecondary Education Personnel Policy Manual and agreed that it would provide the Committee with the information the Department of Administration indicated was lacking from Rhode Island College at the time of its 2016 audit. The OPC will request quarterly reports from the institution Presidents and submit its own report containing this information, which will be provided to the Personnel Committee by October 10, 2016, for the first time, and quarterly thereafter.
