DATE: Tuesday, September 11, 2007

TIME: 9:00 a.m.

PLACE: Rhode Island Ethics Commission

Hearing Room - 8th Floor

40 Fountain Street

Providence, RI 02903

1. Motion to approve minutes of Open Session held on August 21, 2007.

2. Fast Track Advisory Opinions.

A. Todd M. Amaral, a Correctional Officer-Captain for the Department of Corrections, who is also an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Rhode Island, requests an advisory opinion as to whether he may represent the legal interests of: (1) other correctional officers and DOC staff, and (2) female inmates incarcerated at the Adult Correctional Institutions.

B. Harold Krasner, a member of the City of Cranston Building Appeals Board, who is also employed as a part-time plan reviewer for the City of Cranston, requests an advisory opinion as to whether he may continue to serve in both positions without violating the Code of Ethics.

C. Marsha E. Crecelius, the Senior Appraiser for the State of Rhode Island Department of Administration, Office of Municipal Affairs, requests an advisory opinion as to whether she may accept private employment in the form of a part-time job as a data collector for Clipboard, Inc., a property reevaluation company.

D. Mary E. Bray, a member of the Pawtucket City Council, and also a member of the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission (“RIPUC”), requests an advisory opinion regarding whether she may participate in the City Council’s vote on a union contract, given that some members of the union work for the Pawtucket Water Supply Board, an entity that is regulated by the RIPUC.

E. Ronald Iannetta, a member of the City of North Providence School Committee, requests an advisory opinion regarding his ability to participate in contract negotiations and the vote to approve or reject a fully negotiated contract given that members of his family are employed by the School Department.

3. Motion to go into Executive Session pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws §§ 42-46-5(a)(2) and 5(a)(4), to wit:
