

Rhode Island Department of Health Institutional Review Board

February 3, 2005
Beck Conference Room
9:30 – 11:30

Agenda

- 1) Continuation IRB Review:
 - a) HEALTH IRB #2002-14: Spoken work recognition in early language acquisition: James L. Morgan, Ph.D., Department of Cognitive and Linguistic Sciences, Brown University
- 2) Expedited Review:
 - a) HEALTH IRB #2004-06: Review of the Title X Family Planning Program Evaluation Activities and Assessment of Current Evaluation Needs; Cynthia Fowler, Ph.D., Research Triangle International and Lori Zelano, Division of Family Health
 - b) HEALTH IRB #2004-09: Mapping of Tick-transmitted Disease in Rhode Island; Sarah Rodgers, Ph.D. and Thomas Mather, Ph.D., Center for Vector-Borne Disease, University of Rhode Island
- 3) Proposed change to operating procedures: full proposal vs. annual progress report after 5 years
- 4) Update on administrative resources
- 5) Update on new members
- 6) New business

Next meeting: March 3, 2005 (Beck Conference Room)

“The first step in the evolution of ethics is a sense of solidarity with other human beings.”

Albert Schweitzer