Warwick Police Department

Seeking National Accreditation

The Warwick Police Department is scheduled for an on-site assessment as part of a program to attain re-accreditation by verifying it meets professional standards.

Administered by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA), the accreditation program requires agencies to comply with state-of-the-art standards in four basic areas: policy and procedures, administration, operations, and support services.

As part of the on-site assessment, agency employees and members of the community are invited to offer comments at a public information session Monday, January 18th, 2010 at 5:00 p.m. The session will be conducted in the Warwick Police Department, Community Room at 99 Veterans Memorial Drive, Warwick, Rhode Island.

Agency employees and the public are also invited to offer comments by calling (401) 468-4328 on Sunday, January 17th, 2010, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Comments will be taken by the Assessment Team.

Telephone comments as well as appearances at the public information session are limited to 10 minutes and must address the agency's ability to comply with CALEA's standards. A copy of the standards is available and may be viewed at the Warwick Police Department, 99 Veterans Memorial Drive, Warwick, Rhode Island. Local contact is Sergeant Rick Rathbun, (401) 468-4324.
