SUPERINTENDENT CANDIDATE FORUM RESCHEDULED

PUBLIC TO SUBMIT QUESTIONS IN ADVANCE

April 26, 2005 – Cumberland, RI – Monday, May 9, 2005, is the new date for the superintendent candidate forum at which Dr. Donna A. Morelle, the leading candidate for the post, will answer questions regarding her views on teaching and learning, leadership, and her vision for the district's future. The forum will begin at 7:00 PM at the Cumberland High School auditorium with a time to informally meet and talk with the candidate in the foyer. The formal Q&A session will begin at 7:45 PM and run until approximately one hour. In addition to answering questions, Dr. Morelle will provide opening and closing statements. Dan Yorke, superintendent search committee member, will moderate. All town residents, students, parents, teachers, and other constituents of the Cumberland School Department are encouraged to attend.

Questions will be posed by the moderator, and will be drawn from those previously submitted by the public. The deadline for submitting questions is Wednesday, May 4. No questions will be accepted on the night of the forum, and every question must include the name and address of the submitter. Send questions via email to the Superintendent's Secretary at rid06577@ride.ri.net, or via US mail to: Superintendent Search Committee, Superintendent's Office, 2602 Mendon Rd., Cumberland, 02864.
