Welcome to Rich Carrubba, Chairman of the City of Newport Planning Board, and new AIPC Director. Also appointed by City Council are Tanya Kelley and alternate Mary Moniz

Review of Minutes from AIPC meeting of Friday, April 8, 2011

AIPC Progress Report – Tina Dolen, Executive Director

- Annual Meeting Plans to date – and how you can help
- Meeting with Senator Reed and RIDOT Director Michael Lewis on May 20th
- Request to work with Coastal Resources Center on a Renewable Energy Siting Plan that is a non-advocacy research and advisory undertaking
- Rhode Island Foundation recently requested (and received) a report indicating potential economic impacts from development of the West Side Master Plan and the BRAC. We believe these figures may be used to reinforce further contributions to AIPC.
- Possible “Fee for Service” activities that will help us become more self-sufficient.
- Review of AIPC’s Legislative Breakfast
- Recap of the May 4th meeting to wrap up the Transportation Study – and next steps
- Request to work on approaching Portsmouth Sewer Controversies by Century 21 Realtors group
- Time for AIPC to request a liaison from City of Newport

Planning and Communications – Chris Witt, Director of Planning and Communications

- Bike to Work Week
- Mapping Project Update
- Traffic Management Study – and plans for reporting results of that initiative
- Newport Bike Group and upcoming Bike to Work event
- Numerous support tasks for director on variety of projects

Aquidneck Island Reuse Planning Authority Progress Report - Julie Oakley, PRC

- AIRPA board meeting outcomes from May 3, 2011
- Moving ahead to approach municipal groups and councils to gain approval of reuse plan
